

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Ted and Dorothy Hustead bought a small drug store in the obscure town of Wall, South Dakota, during the Depression days of 1931; and,

WHEREAS, Through hard work and perseverance, the Hustead family and the Wall community have built Wall Drug into one of the most widely publicized tourist attractions in the world; and,

WHEREAS, On July 11, 1981, the City of Wall will celebrate 74 years of being the gateway to the Badlands and Black Hills of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, On July 11, 1981, Ted and Bill Hustead and their families will celebrate 50 years of making friends for South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, With their courtesy and kindness, Wall Drug workers have, for half a century, made our visitors feel at home in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Wall Drug's famous offer of free ice water has proven that you can lead millions of tourists to water--and they will thank you for the drink;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Saturday, July 11, 1981, as

WALL DRUG ICE WATER DAY

In South Dakota, and I personally commend Bill Hustead for being very good about paying his water bill to the City of Wall.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
